This sweeper is the newest production on the market, we secured only 200 of them, stamped our firm name on them as our representative in your home.

Short Stories OF THE TOWN

Picnic for Music Class.

Mrs. H. Roche is entertaining her music pupils with a picnic at Brown's lake today.

"Story of a Giant"

The "Dramatic Story of a Giant" will be the theme of the sermon by Dr. Lawrence L. Cohen, Jr., at the Epworth Methodist church Sunday night. In speaking of his subject he said, "It will be a fascinating and gripping as the story of Jack and the Bean Stalk. It will be more wonderful than the Giant of Seven League Boots. It is a drama of ancient life. I hope every young man in Chickasha will hear it. No one who hears this graphic story will forget it. It will haunt them like a dream. Remember the hour, Sunday night at 8:15 p. m. Don't miss it."

SUFFS SELL PEANUTS AT BALL GAME

United Press.

New York, June 3.—The suffs will prove they are real sports at "Suffrage Day on the Diamond" at the New York Polo Grounds while the Giants and Cincinnati struggle for supremacy before the admiring gaze of thousands of suffrage baseball fans here today.

Twenty-five charming young women in yellow, white and blue will circulate through the crowds dispensing pennants, peanuts and votes-for-women buttons.

Among those who will carry trays suspended from their necks by yellow ribbons are Miss Agnes Morganthau, Miss Bessie Brainerd, Miss Clara Greenhut, Miss Hannah White, Miss Molly Tolman, Miss Elka Lewis and Miss Elizabeth Seiber.

Last year the suffragists had to ask on bended knees for the privilege of having "Suffrage Day" upon the diamond. This year they were cordially invited to return.

The generals who have conducted Suffrage Day are Mrs. Norman R. Whitehouse and Mrs. John Blair, assisted by Miss Jane Thomson of Chicago, who has been baking cakes for suffrage in one of Broadway's show windows and selling tickets to her patrons between bites.

The baseball boxes went fast and the following social leaders will appear in their front-row boxes: Mrs. Ogden Mills Reid, Mrs. Charles Tiffany, Mrs. Joseph S. Stevens, Mrs. Charles Noel Edge, Mr. Henry White Cannon, Mrs. John Humphreys Watkins, Mrs. Bernard Gimbel, Mrs. Daniel Guffenheim, Mrs. Arthur Scribner, Mrs. Sidney Borg, Mrs. Laurent Oppenheim, Mrs. A. C. Bartlett, Mrs. Newbold LeRoy Edgar, Mrs. Sam A. Leishon, Mr. E. E. Lewis, Mrs. Myron Borg, Mrs. F. Louis Slade, Miss M. D. ... Mrs. Percy H. Stewart, Mrs. Charles P. Howland, and Mrs. Norman De R. Whitehouse.

FORETHOUGHT.

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv. d&w turned home, that the proudest has been welcomed with extended hand and fatted calves."

E. L. Persons, Progressive, will leave Chickasha tomorrow for Chicago. Mr. Persons also goes to Chicago as a Roosevelt booster, but he does not go to boost Roosevelt into the Republican nomination, thereby bringing about the disintegration of the Progressive party. He goes, on the contrary, as a delegate to the Progressive party's convention, there to stand and fight for Roosevelt and Roosevelt's party.

"The Republican party," said Mr. Persons, "has dug a grave in which it has buried all hope of the return of the rank and file of those who in years gone by rallied about the old party's standard and led that party on to victory."

"No, the Republicans will never again have in their ranks the brain and sinew which was taken therefrom when the leaders turned the batteries upon their most loyal lieutenant, Theodore Roosevelt."

Mr. Persons said that he thought there would be little danger of the Progressive party disintegrating. He said that it was barely possible, he did not think it probable, that Roosevelt might be prevailed upon to accept the nomination for president of the United States at the hands of the party which had bitten the hand which had fed and caressed it.

"We are assembling at Chicago," said Mr. Persons, "to show the world that Roosevelt and progressiveness are not dead. Some of the old line Republicans are asserting that the Progressive party is a 'dead one.' Well, all I have to say is this, that next November's election will show them that if the Progressive party is really dead, it is the liveliest corpse any one ever tackled."

Misses Nona and Meahutta Vincent of Blanchard are shopping in Chickasha today.

BOWEL COMPLAINTS IN INDIA.

In a lecture at one of the Des Moines, Iowa, churches a missionary from India told of going into the interior of India, where he was taken sick, that he had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with him and believed that it saved his life. This remedy is used successfully in India both as a preventative and cure for cholera. You may know from this that it can be depended upon for the milder forms of bowel complaint that occur in this country. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv. d&w
